About Chef Phillip Green

Chef Green has been in the industry for 20+ years. Chef Green has been in the San Francisco Bay Area since 1994, moving to the area to become the Executive Chef at the Harbor Court Hotel/Harry Denton's. He spent four years in that capacity before being hired as the Executive Chef San Francisco Hilton Hotel. In 2005, Chef Green created his own company and joined forces with the Rafael Racquet & Swim Club.

Rent-a-Chef Catering is a catering company, culinary consulting and chef dispatch service that specialize in providing complete catering services to private homes and specialty venues throughout the Bay Area. In addition to catering local events, fundraisers and business events, Chef Green caters school lunches for local school districts.

Chef Green works with all of his clients to create a menu that reflects the clients' wishes and ideas for a memorable event. Rent-a-Chef is a diverse operation that can provide a variety of culinary services and complete catered events.
